

GLDF-300 TARIFF

ITEM 435 - COLLECTION OF CHARGES AND EXTENSION OF CREDIT

1. Charges accruing to the carrier are due and payable at the time an outbound Prepaid shipment is tendered to the carrier, or at the time a Collect shipment is tendered by the carrier to the consignee, except where credit has been extended by the carrier to the shipper, consignee or other party responsible for payment of the freight charges.
2. When the party responsible for payment of freight charges has been extended credit by the carrier, the credit period will be 15 days, including Saturdays, Sundays and legal Holidays, unless a different credit period has been established by publication in a tariff or contract for a specifically named customer.
3. The credit period shall begin on the day following presentation of the freight bill. If the bill is presented or paid by mail, the postmark shall be accepted as evidence of the date of presentation or mailing.
4. Carrier reserves the right to cancel or suspend the extension of credit at any time due to account payment status, negative payment history, or any other reason the carrier believes will result in additional and unwanted risk.

Credit Card Payments

1. Payment for all accrued freight and accessorial charges via credit card may be available at the discretion of the carrier.
2. Payment via credit card may be subject to additional convenience and handling charges.
